

EARLY MORNINGS by Sean Callahan

1. Listen to Sean speak about his early mornings. Finish this sentence.

Sean believes it is good to _____
_____.

Where do you think Sean is from?

2. Listen again and answer these questions.

A. What are Sean's "passions"?

_____

B. What can Sean hear early mornings?

_____
_____

C. What did Sean hear one morning?

_____

D. How old was Sean when he went out with his dad? What did they used to do?

_____

E. Why is it good to "get out there" in the early morning?

_____

Answer Key

1. Listen to Sean speak about his early mornings. Finish this sentence.

Sean believes it is good to [many possible answers] – take a walk in nature in the early morning.

Where do you think Sean is from? Ireland

2. Listen again and answer these questions.

A. What are Sean’s “passions”?

Nature photography      fishing

B. What can Sean hear early mornings?

sounds & noises / everything / grass with dew / creaking of gate / electric fence / ground underneath your feet / water going over boulders / bird calling

C. What did Sean hear one morning?

cows asleep and snoring

D. How old was Sean when he went out with his dad? What did they used to do?

About 8 years old      go to the river “Green Bank” and walk back to the town

E. Why is it good to “get out there” in the early morning?

to help think about problems / be calm and peaceful